In 1901 Harvey E. Hanna, who was born on June 16, 1821, compiled a history of the Patton, Hanna, and other families with which he was connected. Harvey E. Hanna was the son of Margaret Patton and the grandson of James and Sarah Cunningham Patton. This compilation by Mr. Harvey E. Hanna, now deceased, has been furnished to me, Jesse J. Lee, by his son Robert I. Hanna, who resides in Corwin, Kansas, and who was born in April 1862, Mr. Robert I. Hanna being the son of Harvey E. Hanna and Anne Hanna (nee Houston). Four of the sisters lived to be over 85. One lived to be about 90 years old. There were eight of the sisters living at the close of the war of 1865.
All of them were widows. Some of them had been widows 40 years. None of the ever married the second time.

I will now speak of Rhoda Cunningham . She was my great Grandmother. She was one of twin sisters . her maiden name was Summerville. She was born in Dinnegal Co., Ireland, in 1732. She died in Bedford Co., Tenn., Jan. 12, 1831, in her 99 year. as she was a twin an aunt took her to raise. When she was about grown her father and mother summerville decided to emigrate to America. She remained in Ireland with her aunt that had raised her. Her father and mother with a large family left her and got on board of a ship that had a crew of 500 persons. The Captain of the ship put off the entire crew on an island and gave them rations for a few days. He claimed that he had to go off to a point. Then he would return to the island and take them on board and take them to Boston. He took their goods with him, and never returned. The crew ran out of provisions, and 450 had perished before they were found, and could be relieved. The mother of the Summerville family was the only one of the family that survived. All that survived were brought to Boston. In the course of time the mother, Mrs Summerville married a Mr. Davidson. To that union one son was born, and named William. He became a man, and had a family before the begining of the Revolutionary war. He was made a General and fell in battle fought on Catawbe River in N.C. William Davidson was half-brother to my great grand mother Rhoda Cunningham . William Davidson left sons and daughters who emigrated to Kentucky in an early day.

Margaret and Finice
Ewing

Organization of Cumberland Presbyterian Church.

Margaret, one of his daughters, married Finice Ewing, a Presbyterian minister. Revs. Ewing, King and McAdoo were termed the fathers of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. The three ministers Organized the first Presbytry of said Church in the house of said McAdoo in Dixon Co., Tenn. in the month of February, 1810. Ewing and King both emigrated to Mo. in an early day. I have heard each on them preach many times in Mo. in my young manhood. I have seen the wife of Rev. Ewing many times. I was acquainted with two of their sons, who were eminent lawyers. Ephraim Ewing became one of the supreme judges of the state of Mo. He was father-in-law to Senator Cockrell of Mo. He died many years ago. Lawyer Robert Ewing died in Montana, many years ago. Rev. Finice Ewing and wife died in Lexington, Mo., many years ago. They were the great grand father and mother of Lawyer Ewing of New Mexico, well known in Canidian, Texas. Rev. Samuel King died in Jackson Co., but had lived and was buried in Johnson Co., Mo.

Rhoda Cunningham, my great Grand mother spoken of above. Her Maiden name was Summerville. I Can't say whether she was married in Ireland or America. She married a Mr. Cunningham . They raised a very large family of children. They lived for a number of years in Lancaster Co. , Penn. Then they lived in S.C. Then in Buncome Co., N.C. I will give a part of he childrens names,- Humphrey, James, and John he was drowned in East Tenn. I will now give the names of her daughters after marriage. Rhoda married James Alexander. They raised a family and lived and died in Buncome Co., N.C. Sallie Married James Patton, which was my grand father as before stated. They raised eleven daughters and one son that all married in Tenn. Katy Cunningham married Matthew Patton. The names of their children :- Thomas married twice in Tenn. He raised a large family, and died in Randolph Co., Mo. part of his offspring are in Mo. part in Kansas, and part in Texas.

2. Rhoda M. Summerville, married Humphry Cunningham
3. Sarah Cunningham ,married James T. Patton
4. Jane Patton, married Josephus Irvine
5. Josephus Summerville Irvine
6. Matilda Carol Irvine, married David James Lee
7. Jesse Josephus Lee, married Mary Fontaine Waller
8. Jesse Josephus Lee Jr.
His Children

John Patton married Willie Jarret in Bedford Co., Tenn. They both died in Macon Co., Mo. Their Oldest son, Matthew Patton was a Cumberland Presbyterian preacher. He died a few years ago at Webb City, but was buried Macon City, Mo. His brother, Harvey Patton raised a family and died at Macon City, a few years ago. His brother, Daniel and two sisters lived at Macon the last account.

James Patton married first in Ala. to Miss Mcwherter. He moved Tenn., to Ray Co., Mo. in 1830 in company with his stepfather, Robert Hanna, his brother, John Patton, and his widow sister Magdalene Patton and his brother-in-law, Carson. His other sisters Peggy and Rhoda Hanna, Sallie Carson and Jane Cowshart are spoken of before in this book. James Patton married three times while he lived in Ray Co., Mo. He died many years ago. A son and grandsons and daughters of his are now honored and influential citizens in and near Richmond, Mo.

Another daughter of Rhoda Cunningham married Aaron Patton, cousin to James and Matthew Patton. Her name was Magdalene Patton. They raised a family, lived and died in Buncomb Co., N.C. Others of the family I Cannot name.

My great grand mother Rhoda Cunningham and all of her people were Protestants. I have it through tradition that Rhoda Cunningham's Great grand mother was Protestant and was thrown over board with many other Protestants into the sea, and drowned because they would not renounce the Protestant faith. That was done during the Roman persecutions in Ireland. I have no knowledge of any of our relations that were ever Catholic. But they were mostly of the Presbyterian faith until the last one or two generations. My great grand mother, Rhoda Cunningham and my grand father and grand mother, James and Sallie Patton, and all of their children, and my grand father and grand mother Hanna, and all of their children were all Religious.

My great grand mother and my two grand fathers and my two grand mothers all died in Bedford Co., Tenn. My Grand mother, Sallie Patton Died Aug. 13, 1825. Grandfather, James Patton died Aug. 9, 1827. Grandmother, Polly Hanna, died 1828 or 1829. Great Grandmother, Rhoda Cunningham died Jan. 14, 1831. I can remember when they were buried. Grandfather, Andrew Hanna, died some years before I was born.

They were all buried in the same cemetery with a large number of younger relations. If my recollection is correct the cemetery was a half mile or more south from where Grandfather Patton lived for many years, before he died. His house was on a little hill 20 or 30 rods east from the east bank of the Garrison fork of Duck River. His house was 30 or 40 rods south from the mouth of Strate Creek. My father, William Hanna lived two miles east from the mouth of Strate Creek. about 20 or 30 rods from its north bank. The course of said creek was about due west from its source until it past where my father lived. Then its course was a little north of west until it ran into the Garrison Fork. The cemetery spoken of above is 12 miles east from Shelbyville and 1 mile south from the town of Fairfield and 3 miles west from the east line of Bedford Co. My great grand mother, Rhoda Cunningham lived with my grandfather, James Patton for 40 years before he died. After his death she lived with her granddaughter and husband, Rhoda and Thomas Couch. They lived half a mile or more southwest from the cemetery on the west side of the Garrison Fork. Uncle and Aunt Joseph and Katy Couch lived something over a quarter of a mile a little east of south from the cemetery where our grand fathers and grand mothers and uncles and aunts and a large number of our cousins were buried.

HARVEY E. HANNA

The writer of this family history was the son of William and Peggy Hanna. He was born in Bedford Co., Tenn., June 18, 1821. His parents left Tenn. and moved to Ray Co., Mo., in the fall of 1831. He grew to manhood in Ray Co. He was married on Aug. 31, 1848 to Ann Elizabeth Tunnell, daughter of Samuel and Elizabeth Houston of Knoxville, Ray Co., Mo. Harvey E. Hanna is the only living member of William and Peggy Hanna's family. He now lacks five months of being 80 years old. This date is the 17th day of January, 1901.

I am now writing in the town of Canadian, Hemphill Co., Texas.

I will commence on the next page to write the history of the Houston family so far as I can tell the history.

History of the Houston family.

Samuel Houston was a cousin to Gen. Sam Houston of Texas. They were born and grew to manhood in Vir., perhaps in Buckingham Co. That is near to Appomattox, where Gen. Lee surrendered his army to Gen. Grant in April, 1865. Samuel Houston after maturity went to Blount Co., Tenn. I know little about his ancestry. His mothers maiden name was Turke. She named his oldest son James Turke Houston. Samuel Houston had a brother named Hughy Houston.

Elizabeth Ray was born and grew to womanhood in Blount Co., Tenn. She was the youngest of four sisters. The oldest sister married George Wear. They left Tenn. and moved to Alabama 80 or 90 years ago. They were there a number of years. They then moved to Cooper Co., Mo., then into Johnson Co. They raised a large family.

They had four sons. Their names were John, Archie, Robert and William. The two youngest, Robert and William, both became Cumberland Presbyterian preachers, and went from Johnson Co., Mo. to Texas sometime early in the fifties. Two of George and Sallie Wear's daughters married Robert and Finice King. They were both Cumberland Presbyterian preachers. They were sons of Rev. Samuel King, who was called one of the fathers of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, as that Presbytry was organized in the house of

Rev. D. McAdoo by said McAdoo and Rev. Finice Ewing and Rev. Samuel King in the month of February, 1810. Robert and Finice King both left Missouri and went to Texas. Finice died many years ago. Robert died at Corsianna, Texas, perhaps 10 or 20 years ago. Robert wear died -----, in Texas many years ago. William wear was living at Hillsborough, Texas, not long since. George and Sallie wear both died in Johnson Co., Mo. They had married daughters all moved to Texas.

Elizabeth Ray had two other sisters and two brothers. One sister married a Mr. Hamilton. The other married a Mr. Mitchel. Her brothers names were Archie and Robert. Archie Ray married a widow Camel. She was a daughter of Gov. Sevier. He was one of the first governors of Tenn., and grandfather of Ex-Gov. King of Mo. I can't say who Robert Ray married. Elizabeth Ray married Samuel Houston in Blount Co., Tenn. Samuel Houston was a blacksmith, and lived in the town of Maryville, Blount Co., for 10 or 12 years. After marriage 6 of their oldest children were born in Maryville. He then moved to Rhone Co., and lived on a farm at a cross roads, and carried on farming, and his trade and kept a house of entertainment which in those days was called a tavern. Six other children were born in Rhone Co., in the fall of 1834 he left Tenn., and moved to Lafayette Co., Mo., and lived on the old Slusher farm near to the town of Dover. There their youngest son Robert B. Houston was born in the summer of 1835. In the spring of 1836 he crossed over to Ray Co., and lived on a farm near the town of Knoxville until his death which took place in 1862 or 63. His wife Elizabeth died a few years before that time. They and two of their sons, William and Samuel were buried in the Knoxville cemetery a short distance north west from the town.

I believe all of the sisters and brothers of Elizabeth Ray Houston left Blount Co., Tenn., and moved to or near to Tuscumbia, Ala., not far from the year 1820.

I will now give the family record of Samuel and Elizabeth Houston.

Samuel Houston was born in Vir., I believe in Buckingham Co., about 1785. Elizabeth Ray Houston was born in Blount Co., Tenn., about the year 1796.

Dates of birth of their children :-

Margaret Augusta Houston was born in Maryville, Blount Co., Tenn., April 12, 1812.

Clementine Houston was born in Rhone Co., Tenn., Aug. 7, 1832.
